The last owner of the car, is an employee of the Volvo dealership, where the V40 has been sourced from, so the vehicle has waited for nothing since 2011 and is a credit to the two owners. As the Volvo has full black leather, it adds a little more prestige to the already high specification. At Voy Prestige Motors we fully appreciate that you are busy with your lives, so please arrange for us to bring the vehicle to you and I believe that the first person who views this car, will buy it.
